

Investing in People,
Building the Future Together

Employment & Career Services

If you are looking for work, thinking about making a career change or an employer looking for staff, the Department of Human Resources and Employment can help.

Through its Employment and Career Services division, the department offers such programs and services as:

Wage subsidies

Career Counseling

Job Placements

Funding for Training and Education

To find out more about the province's supports to help you prepare for and find work contact :

Human Resources and Employment

Toll-free: 1-877-729-7888

www.gov.nl.ca/hre